16 her Permanent Resident card and BARAJAS presented his United States birth
17 certificate to Customs and Border Protection Officer (CBP) Blanchette. BARAJAS
18 stated he has owned the vehicle for approximately three weeks. VAZQUEZ stated they 19 were on their way to Wal-Mart, in Calexico, to do some shopping. CBP Officer
20 Blanchette then referred the vehicle to vehicle secondary for further inspection.

21 In the vehicle secondary lot, CBP Officer Chong took a negative Customs
22 declarations. CBP Canine Enforcement Officer (CEO) David Alba, and his canine
23 Cindy, conduct a sweep of the vehicle. The canine alerted to the gas tank of the 24 vehicle. CEO Alba notified CBP Officer Chong of the alert.

25 A subsequent inspection of the vehicle revealed 31 packages within the gas tank
26 of the vehicle. CBP Officer Chong probed one of the packages, and a sample of a
27 green leafy substance was obtained, which field tested positive for marijuana. The 31
28 packages had a combined net weight of approximately 45.24 kilograms (99.80 pounds).

29

1 BARAJAS and VAZQUEZ were placed under arrest and advised of their
2 Constitutional Rights, which they acknowledged and waived. BARAJAS denied 3 knowledge of the marijuana found within the vehicle, but towards the end of the 4 interview when confronted with the inconsistencies during the interview, BARAJAS
5 began crying and asking how much time he was going to receive. VAZQUEZ admitted
6 knowledge of the narcotics found within the vehicle and stated they were going to be
7 paid $1,000.00 to smuggle the drug-laden vehicle into the United States. VAZQUEZ
8 stated BARAJAS was aware of the narcotics, and stated BARAJAS set up the 9 smuggling venture for them.
